

Living with Certainty™* is a groundbreaking, spirituality-based self-help philosophy, lifestyle, and life success course of action created by Kristi LeBlanc.

Kristi LeBlanc – Life Success, Purpose, and Joy Consulting

Kristi LeBlanc, author of Living with Certainty: Experience Deep-Soul Joy, is an award-winning executive recruiter and innovative advisor for creating life success and joy through discovering and leveraging your deepest authenticity and purpose. She possesses extraordinary knowledge and personal understanding about what it takes for you to experience success, fulfillment, and deep-soul joy.

Kristi LeBlanc has been a successful senior partner, global practice leader, and member of the operating committee with several of the world's largest, most prestigious retained executive search firms for many years. She has acquired substantial life success expertise through assessing, advising, and interviewing thousands of professionals. Many of the accomplished executives who have shared their life success approach with Kristi are the most authentic, purposeful, fulfilled, and principled men and women around the globe.

Kristi LeBlanc's Life Success

A few of Kristi's professional accomplishments include:

- Speaker and presenter to numerous professional associations.
- Extensively interviewed and published as an industry thought leader on leadership and human capital.
- Received global performance awards in her role as Senior Partner with the largest retained executive search firms in the world.
- Contributed an essay to the college textbook, Integrated Business Communication: In the Marketplace, published in 2007 by John Wiley & Sons Ltd.
- Recipient of the Industry Leader Award from The Minneapolis-St. Paul Business Journal's Women in Business Awards 2007.
- Showcased as a 2007 Minnesota business 'Power Player' in Minnesota Business magazine.

Kristi LeBlanc was educated at the highly-acclaimed S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University. Originally from Los Angeles, California, Kristi is a wife, mom to three small children, and professional woman with a deep desire to teach others how to live with certainty. When Kristi is not recruiting, consulting, speaking, writing, or marketing Living with Certainty, she and her family live in Golden, CO. Her favorite pastimes include many of the glorious outdoor family activities that the Rocky Mountains have to offer, along with enjoying gourmet foods and cooking, fine wine, flower and vegetable gardening, walking/hiking, and traveling. She is also passionate about creating for herself and others meaningful, warm, comforting, and high-vibrational energy environments, lifestyle accoutrements, and surroundings to support us in our journeys.

Whether interviewing candidates for some of the most prestigious executive positions around the globe, developing a formula or philosophy that allows people to discover and express their purposeful authenticity and the life the universe always intended for them to live, mothering her three adorable children, or being a wife to her best friend of twenty years, Kristi lives with deep-soul joy and wishes the same for you.

Kristi LeBlanc's Living with Certainty Mission

My mission is to positively affect scores of people around the globe by helping every one of us to embrace our interconnectivity and to understand the ways in which we co-create our lives in every moment through our thoughts, actions, relationships, beliefs, and gratitude, all of which create our emotions and thus our personal energy vibrations. Through Living with Certainty, I will teach you in practical, easy to understand terms how to discover your inspired soul-view, authenticity, purpose, and ultimately your deep-soul joy. We each have the power within us today to begin to create a more joyous and peaceful world based on how we choose to live our lives in every moment. This is Everyday Spirituality; this is Living with Certainty.